

Handwriting practice sheet for the letter 'g'. The sheet features four rows of musical staves. Each staff contains a series of 'g' characters for tracing. The first row includes a large 'g' with a numbered arrow indicating the stroke direction. The second row contains two groups of 'g's, each preceded by a small '1' and an arrow. The third row contains two groups of 'g's, each preceded by a small '2' and an arrow. The fourth row contains two groups of 'g's, each preceded by a small '3' and an arrow. The 'g's are arranged in a way that they follow the contour of the musical notes on the staves.
